International Services

MISSION STATEMENT

Our purpose is to provide student services, programs, and activities for a diverse, multicultural, and international student population.

WHAT WE DO FOR YOU...

We provide student services that support the college's non-immigrant, international, permanent resident, exchange, and foreign-born student population. We provide pre-admission to post-graduation assistance. Programs that support the international community and international initiatives are directed through International Services.

"Everyone has been so nice and helpful at International Services. They answered all of my questions. The staff guided me during registration and the visa process, and they're still here for me anytime I need them. They are really concerned about my growth at Chattahoochee Technical College. I appreciate that they introduced me to the International Club, which is a great way to meet people and make new friends."

INTERNATIONAL ADMISSIONS

The office provides assistance to international students applying for admission and assists with special admission requirements, visa issues, and other issues related to the admission process.

VISA ADVISEMENT INCLUDES...

- Issuance of I-20's
- Travel Documents
- Work Permission
- Change of Status

- Assistance in obtaining insurance, Social Security numbers, driver's licenses, and tax information for nonresidents

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

Student Exchange Programs

International Services participates with various student exchange programs to enroll and educate exceptional international students.

Study Abroad Programs

CTC study abroad opportunities are coordinated through International Services.

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK FESTIVAL

Held the middle of November, the International Education Week Festival is a major event on campus highlighting CTC's international community with international music, dance, fashion, food, parade of flags, cultural events, film, and professional discussions on global topics of interest.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT CLUB

acts as an active support group of the international community. It serves as a focal point for international student initiatives, concerns, and social functions. The Club sponsors an annual celebration of International Education Week that highlights the cultural diversity of the college and its educational programs of interest. Club members practice cross-cultural skills as they learn to be global leaders and participate in service projects. Selected Club members participate in the annual Georgia International Leadership Conference.
